POLITICAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

4. Me-TV Alaska will not provide commercial production for any political candidate or issue advertiser. Political advertisers must provide their own commercials and shall accept full responsibility and liability for the content within their advertisements. All ads will be required to abide all FCC, FEC and APOC regulations pertaining to the message, content, and disclosures. In the event an ad is in question by an opposing candidate group or campaign's legal representation the station shall reserve the right to pull the ad from rotation for a period during which the station can conduct, "reasonable due diligence".
- 5) Affidavits of performance showing dates and times advertisements aired, will be provided to all political advertisers at the end of the given broadcast month. However, advertisers may request such information at any time during the time their scheduled buy. Contact Me-TV Alaska at (907) 563-5226 or email kacn@kacn-tv.com. Me-TV Alaska reserves the right to air conflicting political announcements in the same break but will try to have reasonable separation when possible. Political advertisements will be limited to one placement per half hour of programming.
- 6) Me-TV Alaska Program Pre-emption Policy: An advertiser is buying, "the time slot; not a specific show". If the show that is ordered is pre-empted by the Me-TV Network, the advertiser's commercial will air in the time slot ordered.
- 7) Make-Good Policy: At the discretion of the station, pre-empted client commercials will run in a similar show {ie: Bonanza = Gunsmoke} at the same rate during the same daypart as originally booked.
- 8) All rates listed on the Me-TV Alaska Political Rate Card are Specified Placements but are also Pre-emptible under special circumstances. Candidate Rates have been based on our Lowest Unit Charge as calculated using FCC and FEC guidelines.
